

63rd Infantry Division Newsletter

Issue Number 21

May 2002

All information in this Newsletter is developed by Fred Clinton, Webmaster, 63rd Infantry Division and does not necessarily reflect the views of other individuals and is in no way an Official Publication of the 63rd Infantry Division or 63rd Infantry Division Association.

This will be a very brief newsletter. I have been spending most of my time this past month working on revision of the 63rd Infantry Division Chronicles, preparing Regimental History CD's and preparing for my upcoming trip to Europe where I will attend the International Peace Meeting in Jepsheim France and then spend a few days with some German Historians in the Ensheim and Buchhof/Stein area of Germany.

June issue of the Newsletter:

There will not be a June issue of the Newsletter since I will be in Europe for most of the month.

I hope to resume publication in July.

New Inquiries and Memorabilia Items:

Check out new entries on the Consolidated Mail Call and Buddy Search List. These can be accessed from the Index Page.

There are also some new items in the Memorabilia Section as well as a photo of the new hats available from the Editor of The Blood and Fire

BE BACK IN JULY

Individual looking for families of men buried in the Lorraine American Cemetery, St Avold, France.

Mr Rick Haverinen is making a video documentary about the Lorraine American Cemetery at St Avold, France and is looking for family members who may be planning a visit to the cemetery in the near future. He is seeking help to create biographical sketches of some of the soldiers buried there. You can contact Mr. Haverinen at the following e-mail address cooncat@t-online.de. Further details can be found on Page 9 of the Bulletin Board.

New Photos on the Web site:

Check out the new photos on the web site by visiting the various "Thumbnail" pages accessed from the Index Page.

There are also some new photos of our Memorial marker and tree at Arlington National Cemetery in the Division Memorials Section.

Information or questions for German Historians:

If you have any questions or would like to provide information for me to present to the two German Historians I will be meeting with next month, please get the information back to me before 15 June 2002.
