

63rd Infantry Division Newsletter

Issue Number 45

August 2009

All information in this Newsletter is developed by Fred Clinton, Webmaster, 63rd Infantry Division and does not necessarily reflect the views of other individuals and is in no way an Official Publication of the 63rd Infantry Division or 63rd Infantry Division Association.

Time for another bit of news for the 63rd Infantry Division group. Summer is upon us and in a few days many will be attending the National Reunion in Boston. This newsletter will be brief-just thought I would bring some new information to your attention.

REUNION: The National Reunion will start on 12 August in Boston, MA. Details concerning the reunion can be found on the Reunion Page.

HOLACAUST MEMORIAL MUSEUM SEEKING LIBERATORS OF CONCENTRATION CAMPS:

Ms Shelby Queen, the Special Event Coordinator at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum is seeking members of the 63rd Infantry Division who actually participated in the liberation of Concentration Camps in Germany during WWII.

The purpose is to focus on the role liberators played in the liberation of the concentrations camps during the Museum's annual Days of Remembrance Ceremony at the Capital Rotunda in Washington , D C. It is her plan to invite and recognize those liberators to the ceremony.

If you participated in the liberation of one of the many concentration camps in Germany during WWII, you can make yourself known by contacting Ms Queen at squeen@ushmm.org or by regular mail : Ms Shelby Queen, Special Event Coordinator, United States Holocaust Memorial Museum,

NOW AVAILABLE ON THE INTERNET:

The Blood and Fire Publication can now be viewed on the Internet. The plan is for those individuals who want to receive their Blood and Fire Publication via the Internet to make it available as soon as the copy is sent to the printer.

Individuals desiring to view the Blood and Fire on the Internet should contact Donna LaCosse at hlacosse@netnitco.net and let her know. Use of the Internet will save postage, printing and other fees associated with the publication of the Blood and Fire.

I have put several of the latest issues of The Blood and Fire on the Internet and they can be accessed from the Index Page of the 63rd Infantry Division Website at www.63rdinfdiv.com

They can also be accessed directly from the following page of the web site, www.63rdinfdiv.com/bloodandfirepublicationissuespage1.html

If you have problems accessing the Blood and Fire Publications, please let me know at joyclint@comcast.net.

PHOTOGRAPHS AND MEMORABILIA IMAGES:

Many new photographs and memorabilia images have been added to the web site photo sections.
