

63rd Infantry Division Newsletter

Issue Number 46

November 2009

All information in this Newsletter is developed by Fred Clinton, Webmaster, 63rd Infantry Division and does not necessarily reflect the views of other individuals and is in no way an Official Publication of the 63rd Infantry Division or 63rd Infantry Division Association.

This will give you the chills

The conductor of the orchestra is Andre Rieu from the Netherlands. The young lady, her trumpet and her rendition of TAPS makes your hair stand on end.

Many of you may never have heard taps played in its entirety. This is an opportunity you won't want to miss and I guarantee you'll never forget.

This video will play on Windows Media Player and might take a few seconds to appear. up a bit.(Click large arrow head, left bottom, to start the film)

Well that topped off my Thanksgiving Day celebration. What a wonderful Now that I have you in a "Music" mode, a little more to brighten your day.

Did you know that the 63rd Infantry Division actually had its own song? Well it does and you can view it by clicking HERE.

I can't hum the tune nor am I thrilled with the words. I seemed to remember them saying something like "You got a Section eight" when I left the Army.

Now back to a more serious mood. What's been going on with the 63rd Infantry Division and the web site.

2010 REUNION

The 63rd Infantry Division Association will hold its annual reunion in Fairborn, Ohio from 18-21 August 2010. Details will appear on the Reunion Page when they become available.

The 63rd Infantry Division Association(USAR) will hold its annual

What do you supposed they meant?

Well to continue to Music Theme I want to let you hear a number of songs that I have collected over the years that will inspire you, make you think, entertain you and/or get your feet moving. This is my Christmas gift to you all. So here are the references to start enjoying ---

- 1: America the Beautiful- Ray Charles
- 2: 50,000 names- George Jones
3. Born Again American
4. Do-Re-Mi-Dancers in Belgium Train Station
5. Piano Duet
6. Get you in the Boogie Woogie mood.
7. If that didn't do it I am sure that this next one will get your heart beating fast and your feet tapping.-Come on!! It's time to Boogie. Click HERE for your exercise video.

Internet Newsletter #45

Internet Newsletter #47

Home

meeting in Fullerton, CA on 18 April 2010. Details will appear on the Reunion Page when they become available.

NEW PHOTOS ON THE WEB SITE

Since the last newsletter there have been some really great photos added. Take the time to view them. I am giving you a link to the last page of each photo section so that you can work your way backward to photos you might have previously seen.

- 1- 63d Infantry Division in Combat
- 2- Miscellaneous Photos and Images
- 3- 63d Infantry Division on Occupation Duty

While you are scanning photos don't forget to take a look at the German and Japanese surrender documents

The National Infantry Museum

The National Infantry Museum has just opened in Columbus Georgia at a location just outside of the entrance to Fort Benning, Georgia. Take a few minutes to visit their site at <http://www.nationalinfantrymuseum.com>

Looking for gifts for your veteran friends?

Take a look at items available from the Historian of the 63rd Infantry Division Association on the Memorabilia Pages

If you can't make up your mind, a gift membership in the 63rd Infantry Division Association would be nice. Go to the Membership page for details.