

63rd Infantry Division Newsletter

Issue Number 47

January 2010

All information in this Newsletter is developed by Fred Clinton, Webmaster, 63rd Infantry Division and does not necessarily reflect the views of other individuals and is in no way an Official Publication of the 63rd Infantry Division or 63rd Infantry Division Association.

Well I hope you all had a wonderful holiday season and that you are surviving the winter months. While the weather hasn't been all that bad here in Virginia, except for one pretty heavy snowstorm a few weeks ago, I am ready to head South to warm up.

So before I leave I want to bring you up-to-date on the latest additions to your 63d Infantry Division Web Site.

NEW ADDITIONS TO THE WEB SITE:

A NEW INDEX PAGE FORMAT:

I have changed the entry page to the web site to include a more subdued image. I have also added a photo slide show and some accompanying music. You will also see a new subject along the top of the page - "Juke Box".

The photo slide show contains about 4 minutes of photos from the photo sections of the web site. Of course if you don't wish to view the photos you just have to click on the "Enter Site" entries and you will be moved to the old index page.

If you wish to view the photos in a larger image, simply click on the photos and they will increase to the size of your screen. To return to the regular sized screen, right click on the photo and click "Exit Full Screen" I have found that if you open the web site using Mozilla or Firefox, the photos appear too large in the screen to see the entire photo, so I suggest you left click on the photos and have them increased to full size if you wish to view them. I have no idea why that happens with Mozilla or Firefox, but

REGIMENTAL OPERATIONS REPORTS HAVE BEEN ADDED:

Monthly Regimental Operations Reports for the combat months have been added for your information. They can be accessed from page 1 of each regimental section.

COMPLETE ALPHABETICAL ROSTERS HAVE BEEN ADDED TO THE WEB SITE.

A complete alphabetical roster of everyone who was ever assigned to the 63rd Infantry Division during World War II can be found on the Division History Page.

To see this roster click here

COMPLETE ALPHABETICAL ROSTERS, BY COMPANY, HAVE BEEN ADDED TO THE REGIMENTAL PAGES, DIVISION ARTILLERY PAGE, THE SUPPORT BATTALIONS PAGE AND THE SPECIAL TROOPS PAGE

On the first page of each regimental page, support battalion page and the Special Troops page you will be able to access a complete alphabetical roster, by company, of everyone who was ever assigned to those units during World War II

To see these rosters click on unit shown below:

then even to be able to show them is always amazing to me.

In the "Juke Box" you will some music videos - some sad, some happy, some uplifting but all proven to entertain you.

BLOOD AND FIRE ISSUES:

Don't forget that you can view the latest issue of the Blood and Fire by going to the following page and clicking on the issue you wish to see.

SUGGESTIONS:

If you have any suggestions as to what should or shouldn't be included on the web site, please let me know. My e-mail address is joyclint@comcast.net The idea for adding the complete alphabetical rosters came from the son of one of our veterans when he asked if his father's name could somehow be added to the web site.

PHOTOGRAPHS AND IMAGES

As usual I am still looking for photographs and images relating to the 63rd Infantry Division. After 65 years I much to my surprise and pleasure they somehow keep showing up. Keep them coming. Remember that all photos will appear in the appropriate photo section of the web site , on the Pictorial History of the 63rd Infantry Division CD and the History CD of the unit concerned. Of note here is that the CDs are provided to museums and select libraries for research and viewing by those interested in WWII history. Photos can be sent by attachments to e-mail, along with captions or by regular mail to me- Fred Clinton, 102 S. Jenkins Street, Alexandria, Va 22304. I will return all photos after processing if desired.
