

63rd Infantry Division Newsletter

Issue Number 58

August 2015

All information in this Newsletter is developed by Fred Clinton, Webmaster, 63rd Infantry Division and does not necessarily reflect the views of other individuals and is in no way an Official Publication of the 63rd Infantry Division or 63rd Infantry Division Association.

Hello again from sunny, hot and humid Virginia. What is going on with the weather?

I thought since it was so hot outside I would come in to the cool of my house and prepare another newsletter. I don't have a lot to write about this time, but there are a couple of subjects I thought I would cover so you could spend some time indoors and cool off.

FRENCH LEGION OF HONOR:

If you think you are eligible for this award I would suggest you begin your submission process now while you are still breathing. Once you are gone the French Government will not accept applications for this award.

Go to the following address for details for making your application and determining if you are eligible.

French Legion of Honor:

Should you need assistance in obtaining necessary documentation to make your application you can contact me at joyclint@comcast.net

FINAL DAYS OF THE 63RD INFANTRY DIVISION ASSOCIATION.

I still have not received confirmation of the final days of the 63rd Infantry Division Association. I will let you know as soon as I am able to get some information about the final closure.

PHOTOS AND IMAGES OF 63D INFANTRY DIVISION PERSONNEL.

I am still accepting photos and images relating to the 63rd Infantry Division for posting on the web site and inclusion in the historical files of the division.

AWARD OF THE BRONZE STAR MEDAL BASED ON YOUR EARNING THE COMBAT INFANTRYMAN OR COMBAT MEDICAL BADGE

If is not too late to make an application for the award of a Bronze Star Medal for meritorious service based on your earning to Combat Infantryman Badge or Combat Medical Badge. The application can be made by the next of kin if the service member is no longer alive and it will be awarded posthumously .

Details for making application for this award can be found at the following address on the 63d Infantry Division Web Site:

63D INFANTRY DIVISION AND 254TH INFANTRY REGIMENT CHALLENGE COINS

My supply of 63d Infantry Division and 254th Infantry Regiment Challenge Coins is fast dwindling with only nine (9) 63d Infantry Division coins and thirty(30) 254th Infantry Regiment coins remaining. After these are gone I do not plan on reordering the coins.

You can see the details on description and costs at the following address:

63D INFANTRY DIVISION HISTORY CDS AND DVDS.

If you are interested in learning more about the 63rd Infantry Division and the units within the division you might be interested in obtaining some of the History CDs and DVDs that are available. These CDs and DVDs not only provide a detailed account of the WWII history of the 63rd Infantry Division, but they contain many personal accounts

You can send them to me, Fred Clinton
102 S. Jenkins Street, Alexandria, VA
22304 and after processing I will return them to you OR you can send the images along with captions to me via email to joyclint@comcast.net.

It is never too late to send them in but if you don't more than likely they will be lost in the shuffle and not be saved for others to view and enjoy.

of events during combat, thousands of photographs of training, combat, occupation and after the war, along with complete rosters of units and awards.
