Issue Number 11

Jun 2001

All information in this Newsletter is developed by Fred Clinton, Webmaster, 63rd Infantry Division Association and does not necessarily reflect the views of other individuals and is in no way an Official Publication of the 63rd Infantry Division Association.

the time go? It seems like only yesterday that we were celebrating the end of the war in Europe and contemplating our next move- probably to fight the war in Japan.

Now here we are, all over 70+ (WWII vets) and just happy to wake up in the morning.

REUNIONS

Just a reminder about the upcoming National 63rd Infantry Division Association Reunion to be held at Virginia Beach, VA in late September 2001. Go to the Reunion Page to get details.

THINGS TO CHECK OUT THIS TIME AROUND.

PRESERVING HISTORICAL DATA:

The Division Historian is undertaking a project to preserve all of the Blood and Fire Newspapers published in 1943-1945. These publications are very fragile and because of that they cannot be viewed or handled by the members. I am currently having these items scanned and placed on a CD where they can be viewed, printed and preserved for all to see. This project should be completed within the new month or so and the results will be available for viewing at the next reunion.

After completion of the project copies of the CD will be provided to all museums and WWII research libraries for use by the general public.

In this connection, I am still trying to find someone who will lend me a copy of the Adobe Acrobat 4 or 5 program so that I can make adjustments to the files as added to the e-mail list for receiving this Newsletter. If you haven't joined the 63rd Infantry Division Association as yet, we would love to have you join with us if the fellowship and memory of our contribution to world peace and security. Details for joining the Association are contained on the Membership Page. In this connection I am still trying to figure out how to send out the newsletter to all those on the e-mail address list without showing all of the addresses. Does anyone out there know how to do that? If so please let me know. Thanks.

MEMORABILIA ITEMS FOR SALE

Have you taken the time to check out the various Memorabilia Items for sale by the Association Historian? Pins, patches, printed matter, maps, rosters and other items are available. Go to the Memorabilia Page for details. needed. The CDs can be read and printed with an Adobe Acrobat Reader, which I already have and is free off of the internet. So if anyone out there wants to help me out with the Adobe Acrobat 4 or 5 program, it would be really nice.

PHOTOS

I am still seeking photos and memorabilia images to put on the web site. Search through all of that old stuff and see if you have any WWII photos of the 63rd Infantry Division at Camp Van Dorn, in action or on occupation duty. If you don't come up with something soon I may be forced to put all of my D Company, 254th Infantry Photos on the site.

SEE YOU IN JULY AND AT THE REUNION IN SEPTEMBER.
