

63rd Infantry Division Newsletter

Issue Number 5

December 2000

All information in this Newsletter is developed by Fred Clinton, Webmaster, 63rd Infantry Division Association and does not necessarily reflect the views of other individuals and is in no way an Official Publication of the 63rd Infantry Division Association.

Speaking of voting, I am sorry to say that the 63rd Infantry Division Web Page came in a slow third in the voting for the Military Site Web War. Just two more votes would have done it. I have asked for a recount, but no luck. That's OK, I know we have the most interesting military web site.

I am not going to spend a lot of time on the Newsletter this month, because I have got to do my Santa Claus thing for 17 grandchildren and I think that is going to take a little time.

BAD NEWS--I was advised on 12 Dec 00 that someone has sent a message to our addressee list with an attachment that contains a virus with the name NAVIDAD.EXE. Names of the senders were Linda Smania or John C and Leah D. The message sent appeared to be an October Newsletter from the 63rd Infantry Division but it had an attachment.

The attachment contained the virus.

Please be aware that I will never send an attachment with the Newsletter message. The Newsletter message will

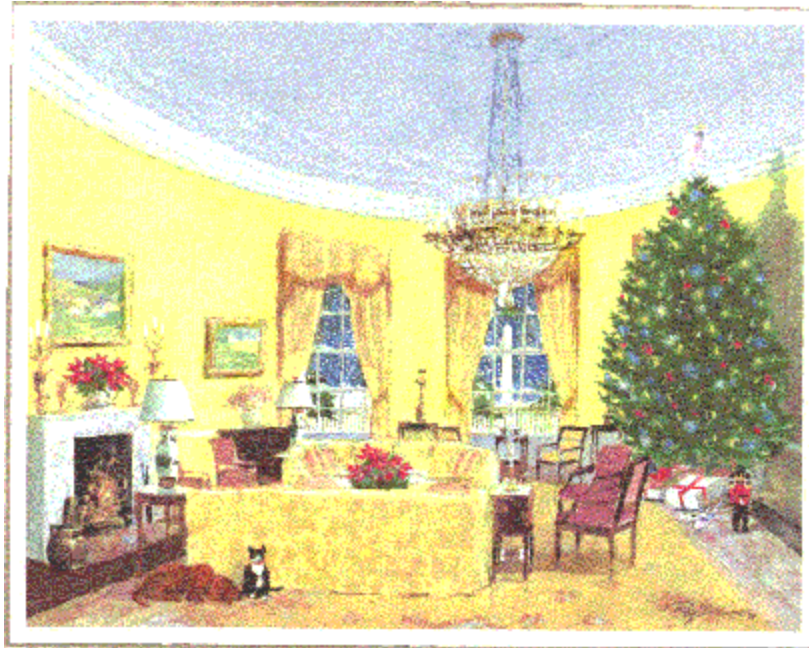

Not much in the way of new areas to explore this month, but take a look at the following, that is if you have the time.

Take a look at a new section--The Birth and Death of an Army Post, Camp Van Dorn, Mississippi. This history was compiled by Mr Caulfield of Centreville Mississippi and I thought it might be a nice addition to our web site. I hope you find it interesting. Go to the following address:
<http://www.63dinfdiv.com/historyvandornpage1.html>

only give you an address to go to.

I don't know why someone would take the effort to make life so difficult for others. Its still a great life even after taking in to account people that will do this kind of thing.

Best wishes for a happy holiday to all. I'll be back with you again next year. Fred Clinton your webmaster.
