THIRD MARINE DIVISION ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I

Purposes

- (A) To incorporate a non-profit membership corporation;
- (B) To foster, encourage, and perpetuate the memory and the spirit of friendship among our comrades-in-arms who are or have been members of the Third Marine Division; and to preserve incidents and memories of our association together;
- (C) To perpetuate the history and traditions of the Third Marine Division;
- (D) To promote and safeguard the principles of justice, freedom and democracy;
- (E) To foster patriotism, love of our Country and our Flag;
- (F) To perpetuate the spirit and traditions of the United States Marine Corps;
- (G) To promote and cultivate social intercourse and fellowship among our members; and
- (H) To hold meetings and social gatherings for the better realization of the purposes of our Association.

ARTICLE II

Membership and Dues

- (A) Membership in the Association will be classified in three categories, as follows:
  - (1) Regular Members—Honorably discharged veterans and men on active duty who, at any time between the date of the initial activation of the Division and a date to be announced, were members of, assigned to on attached duty and performed duty with, the Third Marine Division or any unit attached to and serving with said Division are eligible for regular membership.
  - (2) Associate Members—Legal dependents, parents or guardians of those persons eligible for membership under Article II(A)(1), are eligible for Associate Membership.
  - (3) Honorary Members—Gold Star parents of those persons, who, if alive, would have been eligible for regular membership under Article II(A)(1), and other civilians who have rendered distinguished service to the Division or our Association, may, upon application and approval by the Board of Directors, be granted honorary life membership.
- (B) The determination of units which served with or were attached to the Third Marine Division shall be determined by the Board of Directors upon advice and information from Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps, and a list thereof attached hereto shall be deemed a part of these By-Laws.
- (C) Dues—Membership dues, applicable to regular and associate members shall be two dollars ($2.00) per calendar year and payable on the first day of January. If dues are not paid before April 1st the member's name shall be dropped from the membership roll. New memberships received during the last five (5) calendar months of the year shall be considered as having paid up for the full calendar year following that in which dues are received.

(D) Membership shall be by approval of the Board of Directors at any meeting.

(E) A member may be expelled, suspended, censured, or otherwise disciplined for improper conduct, by a two-thirds vote of a quorum of the Board of Directors present at any meeting thereof, but only after reasonable opportunity to be heard shall have been given the member to be dealt with.

ARTICLE III

Meetings of Members

(A) ANNUAL MEETINGS. The Annual Meeting of the members shall be held at such place and date as the Board of Directors may direct. The Secretary shall serve personally or by mail, a written notice thereof, addressed to each member entitled to vote, at his address as it appears on the membership roll.

(B) QUORUM. The presence of not less than nine regular members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a lesser number may adjourn to some future time and date, or the next regular meeting.

(C) SPECIAL MEETINGS. Meetings of members, other than those herein before specified, may be called at any time by the President with the consent of the Executive Committee, or by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. Notice of such meeting stating the purpose for which it is called shall be served by mail, not less than five days before the date of such meeting. The notice shall be mailed to each member entitled to vote at his address as it appears on the membership roll. The President or the Board of Directors shall also in like manner call a special meeting of the members whenever so requested by fifty members entitled to vote. No business other than that specified in the call for meeting shall be transacted at any special meeting of the members.

(D) VOTING. The right to vote in the transaction of business of the Association is vested in the regular members only. At all meetings all questions shall be determined by a majority vote. All voting shall be given by voice, except that a vote shall be by ballot upon order of the Chairman of such meeting.

(E) ORDER OF BUSINESS. (1) The order of business at all regularly scheduled meetings shall be as follows:

ROLL CALL

PROOF OF NOTICE OF MEETING

READING OF THE MINUTES OF PRECEDING MEETING

REPORTS OF OFFICERS

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

ELECTION OF INSPECTORS OF ELECTION
ELECTION OF OFFICERS (Annual Meeting)
ELECTION OF DIRECTORS (Annual Meeting)
UNFINISHED BUSINESS
NEW BUSINESS

- (2) The order of business at all special meetings shall be as designated by the Board of Directors as appropriate.

ARTICLE IV

Directors

(A) NUMBER. The affairs of this Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of not more than two men from each Regiment of the Wartime Division, one from each of the Separate Battalions including Division Headquarters Company and ten Directors-at-Large who shall be members in good standing.

(B) METHOD OF ELECTION. The Directors shall be elected by the members at annual meeting.

(C) TERM OF OFFICE. The term of office of each of the Directors shall be three years and thereafter until his successor has been elected, except for Directors-at-Large, whose term shall be for one year or until their successors are chosen at each annual meeting. The Directors elected at the first annual meeting shall divide themselves into three groups to serve one year, two years, and three years respectively. Thereafter one-third of the Directors shall be elected each year.

(D) DUTIES OF DIRECTORS. The board of Directors shall have the control and general management of the affairs and business of the Association. Such Directors shall in all cases act as a board, and they may adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of their meetings and management of the Association as they may deem proper, not inconsistent with the By-Laws.

(E) DIRECTORS MEETING. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at least once each year. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President at any time and shall be called by the President or Secretary upon written request of nine Directors.

(F) NOTICE OF MEETINGS. Notice of meetings shall be given by mail to each Director at his last known post office address at least five days before the date therein designated for such meeting, including the day of mailing, by written or printed notice thereof specifying the time of such meeting. No business other than that specified in the notice shall be transacted at a special meeting.

(G) QUORUM. At any meeting of the Board of Directors, nine members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but in the event of a quorum not being present, a lesser number may adjourn the meeting to some future time not less than ten days.

(H) VOTING. At all meetings of the Board of Directors each Director is to have one vote.

(I) VACANCIES. Vacancies in the Board occurring between annual meetings shall be filled, until the next annual meeting of the members, by a majority of the quorum at any meeting. The remaining unexpired term of any vacancy shall be filled by election of members at the annual meeting.

(J) REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS. Any one or more of the Directors may be removed either with or without cause at any time by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Board at any special meeting called for that purpose, but only after opportunity to be heard shall have been given to the member to be so dealt with.

ARTICLE V Officers

(A) NUMBER. The officers of the Association shall be:

President

Vice Presidents not to exceed ten in number elected in each operational region to be determined by the Board of Directors.

Secretary

Treasurer

Chaplain

Legal Officer

Sergeant-at-Arms

(B) ELECTION. All Officers shall be elected by the members at the annual meeting and shall hold office for the term of one year or until their successors are elected. In case of death or resignation of any officer other than the President or any Vice President, the successor shall be appointed by the President until the next annual meeting of members.

(C) One or more Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers shall be appointed by the President as may be necessary or advisable to serve during the term of the President or at his pleasure.

(D) The nominee for office receiving a plurality of the votes cast shall be declared elected.

(E) QUALIFICATIONS. All officers shall be members of the Association in good standing.

(F) DUTIES. The duties and powers of the officers of the Association shall be as follows:

1. PRESIDENT

(a) The president shall preside at all meetings of the members and Board of Directors unless he shall designate a chairman to preside at any meeting.

(b) He shall present at each annual meeting of the members and directors a report of the condition of the business of the Association.

(c) He shall cause to be called regular and special meetings of the members and directors in accordance with these By-Laws.

(d) He shall, as he may deem necessary or advisable, appoint and remove, employ and discharge and fix compensation of all servants, agents, employees and clerks of the Association other than the duly appointed officers, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.

(e) He shall appoint such committees as he may deem necessary or advisable unless the designation of such committee is elsewhere provided for in these By-Laws.

(f) He shall sign and make all contracts and agreement in the name of the Association.

(g) He shall see that the books, reports, statements and certificates required by statute are properly kept made and filed according to law.

(h) He shall enforce these By-Laws and perform all the duties incident to the position and office and which are required by law.

2. VICE PRESIDENTS

(a) During the absence or inability of the President to render and perform his duties or exercise his powers, as set forth in these By-Laws or in the acts under which this Association is formed and organized, the same shall be performed and exercised by the Vice Presidents in the order named and when so acting they shall perform the same duties and exercise the same powers as are hereby given to or imposed upon the President.

3. SECRETARY

(a) The secretary shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors, of the members, the Executive Committee, and such other boards and committees as may be duly appointed, in appropriate books.

(b) He shall be custodian of the records and seal and affix the latter when required.

(c) He shall give and serve all notices of the Association.

(d) He shall supervise the office with the exception of the work under the jurisdiction of the Treasurer, subject to the will and authority of the President.

(e) He shall keep the books so as to show at all times the names of the members, by units, alphabetically arranged, their respective places of residence, their post office addresses, the time at which each person became a member and the amount paid as dues.

(f) He shall present to the Board of Directors at the stated meetings all communications addressed to him official'y.

(g) He shall attend to all correspondence and perform all the duties incident to the office of Secretary.

4. TREASURER

(a) The treasurer shall have the care and custody of and be responsible for all funds and securities of the Association and deposit all such funds in the name of the Association in such bank or banks, trust company or companies or safe deposit vaults as the Board of Directors may designate.

(b) He shall sign, make and endorse in the name of the Association all checks, drafts, warrants and orders for payment of money and pay out and dispose of same receipt therefore under the direction of the Board of Directors.

(c) He shall exhibit at all reasonable times his books and accounts to any director or member of the Association upon application at the office of the Association during the business hours.

(d) He shall render a statement of the conditions of the finances of the Association at each regular meeting of the Board of Directors and at such other times as shall be required of him and a full financial report at the annual meeting of the members.

(e) He shall keep at the office of the Association correct books of account of all its business and transactions and such other books of account as the Board of Directors may require.

(f) He shall do and perform all duties appertaining to the office of Treasurer.

(g) He shall, if required by the Board of Directors, give a bond or such security for the faithful performance of his duties as the Board of Directors may require.

5. ASSISTANT SECRETARY

(a) He shall assist the Secretary in all his duties and shall act for the Secretary in his absence.

6. ASSISTANT TREASURER

(a) He shall assist the Treasurer in all his duties and shall act with the same powers and under the same conditions as is given or imposed upon the Treasurer in the absence of the Treasurer or in case of his resignation or inability to act.

7. CHAPLAIN

(a) He shall open meetings with prayer and close same with benediction. He shall act as spiritual advisor of the Association and shall hold fitting funeral ceremony for deceased members when called upon to do so. Further, he will be consulted when services memorializing men of the Association are contemplated.

8. LEGAL OFFICER

(a) He shall take care of all matters arising between the Association and Government authorities and shall take care of all legal matters arising between the Association and individuals, except duties, rights or privileges of officers, members and employees.

9. SERGEANT-AT-ARMS

(a) He shall, under the direction of the Presiding Officer at any and all meetings, be empowered to preserve the dignity and decorum of the meetings and to take steps necessary to enforce instructions given him.

ARTICLE VI

Committees

(A) The EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE shall consist of the President, two Directors appointed by the President, all the Vice Presidents, the Secretary, and Treasurer, and shall meet at the call of the President, and attendance of three members thereof shall constitute a quorum.

The Executive Committee shall have power to act in place of the Board of Directors in all matters of management except the election of Directors and officers.

(B) The President shall act as a Committee-of-One for the nomination of the ten Directors-at-Large and shall submit these nominations at each annual meeting.

(C) The following committees, composed of five members each, shall be appointed by the Board of Directors:

- (1) For the nomination of Directors, except Director-at-Large, to be submitted at each annual meeting of the members.
- (2) For the nomination of officers, except for those officers to be appointed by the President, to be submitted at each meeting of the members.

(D) The members of all committees other than the committees for nomination of Officers and Directors, and the Executive Committee appointed by the President to serve during the term of his office or at his pleasure.

"May I recall in closing President Eisenhower's statement:
'We must be ready to dare all for our country. For history does not long entrust the care of freedom to the weak or the timid.'

"And General Eisenhower's words of warning: 'For in the final choice, a soldier's pack is not so heavy a burden as a prisoner's chains.'"

"The most certain way for a nation to invite disaster is to be opulent, self-assertive and unarmed. It is less expensive to take needed measures now than it will be to pay the bill for not taking them. In war there is no second prize for the runner-up."

—President Theodore Roosevelt

"Peace-loving nations can never buy off an aggressor by giving him what he wants: he will come back asking for more. Appeasement only whets the appetite of aggression and is never the way to peace."

"No man is so much disliked as the man who talks down to his men. Condescension breeds curses. Popularity with our men is a mystery . . . The sure way to lose popularity is to seek it."
