To

WORLD WAR II BUDDIES:

When the Pearl Harbor insult became known and evaluated, we passed to you a large part of the responsibility of protecting our Country and our way of life in a chaotic world of terror.

You won, and you have returned to the scenes of your childhood, suddenly matured, ready to take your place in the community. As in the war emergency, the responsibility for the future of our Country is largely yours.

All Legionaires are striving for both the betterment and protection of their Community, State, and Nation, and for the care and protection of all ex-service men and their families. We invite you to work with us toward those ends; in fact, we hope to pass the ball to you.

As a Post Commander, I take this occasion to invite and welcome all who wore our Country's uniform with honor in World War II, regardless of location or branch of service, to become full and active members of the American Legion.
