TO VETERANS OF WORLD WAR TWO:

Every member of the American Legion in the Nation is proud of the torch of victory carried by the fighting men of World War II and we indulge the sincere hope that the victory you have so valiantly won shall be supported by a peace that will forestall another war.

As you fighting men go back to civilian life, we of the American Legion hope that you will pick up the fight and carry on the battle for a better America that we have tried to carry on for you.

We know that, from your ranks, will come leadership that will be wise and able and we hope you will take over the duties we have tried to carry on for you while you have been away.

Most sincerely,

QUINLAN, TEXAS

Quinlan has certainly done its part in the Red Cross, War Fund, Bond, U.S.O. and War Salvage drives. In all of these drives Quinlan has all ways reached her quota and this can be attributed to the wonderful cooperation of the citizenship of Quinlan and surrounding territory. Hobart Lytal has been chairman of the Home Service Chapter of the Red Cross at Quinlan and this department has been of great assistance to soldier boys and their wives. In the Red Cross Drives Harve Davis, C. A. Abernathy, C. A. Covey and Hobart Lytal have headed the drives but the assistance of the volunteer workers whose names are too numerous to mention are responsible for the success. W. G. Griffis has headed most of the Bond drives and on each occasion Quinlan has reached or exceeded its quota. In the Seventh War Fund drive it has just been determined that we reached our quota of $22,500. Results of the salvage drives headed by the local School assisted by the other schools of nearby communities has indeed been gratifying and we have learned that truly "Cooperation is Our Watchword" and that's what it takes for success for any community.

WOLFE CITY, TEXAS, BACKS HER FIGHTING MEN ALL THE WAY!

Wolfe City has gone over the top in all War Loan Drives, Red Cross Drives and War Chest Drives, most of the time first in the county to overscribe her quota. The Red Cross Room opened here in 1941 and to date has made 400 knitted garments, 56,648,000 surgical dressings, and 1,094 miscellaneous garments. Wolfe City has backed her fighting men 100% and will continue to do so until complete Victory!

Mrs. M. A. Field

LONE OAK, TEXAS

A few of the many things that have come before the Lone Oak people to show the local boys who have a part in World War II, that the "ole hometown and community" is behind them.

In December, 1941, an Emergency Red Cross Drive was made calling for a $300 quota and it was raised.

May, 1942, the Navy Relief quota of $50 went over the top with $52.13 being subscribed.

The first USO Drive in July, 1942, with Rev. L. W. Shivers, Methodist pastor as chairman, was the first in the County to go over in the drive with $627.52 being raised.

The first scrap iron and old rubber drive in October, 1942, for which A. G. Hurst was chairman, netted 75,000 pounds of scrap iron and other junk and better than 100,000 pounds of rubber.

March, 1943, the Red Cross War Fund quota of $675 was raised, with T. E. (Tince) Elliott as chairman.

March, 1944, the $950 Red Cross War Fund quota, with F. P. Scott and Bro. C. E. Deakins as co-chairmen, went over the top with $1,080.40 being turned in.

October, 1944, War Chest Drive with a $800 quota of which F. P. Scott was chairman, reached $826.63 before the close of the drive.

March, 1945, the Red Cross Drive with a quota of $875 shows that the chairman, F. P. Scott turned in $955.00.

GREENVILLE, TEXAS

A salute to the military men of Hunt County:

Greenville, the home of Majors Army Air Field, a training center for pilots, has been on the alert, while their boys were on the fighting fronts. Although the people were not present on the battlefields in person, their spirit was there, and their financial help. Greenville supports a USO and a Downtown Soldiers Club to entertain the boys located at Majors Field here. Not only does Greenville support these clubs financially but with much of their own talent.

A unit for entertaining returned hospitalized veterans has been organized of Greenville talent. This unit travels within a radius of two hundred miles to entertain the veterans. The local clubs, headed by the American Legion sponsor entertainment and furnish gifts, furnishings for the lounge rooms in the different hospitals in this area.

The Red Cross unit makes bandages, and other medical dressings. This unit is made up of the homefolk and many of the wives of the military men stationed in our town. Many pints of blood from Hunt County citizens have been sent into the battlefields. Greenville has always gone over the top with their War Bond Drives, War Chest Drives and Red Cross War Fund drives. A clothing drive was staged for used clothing for the war torn areas, and Hunt County contributed approximately 80,000 pounds of clothing for this cause. Numerous paper drives and tin can drives have been made for the war effort.

The Greenville people has postwar plans and a postwar committee has been set up sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of bringing industries into Greenville to provide employment for the returning boys.

COMMERCE, TEXAS

Immediately following the attack on Pearl Harbor by the Japanese, Commerce citizens, just like people all over the United States, began a civilian defense program. Committees created and their chairmen were: Fire Protection, H. M. Dyer; Emergency Medical Service, W. Y. Goff; Conservation, J. O. McKenzie; and Defense Savings, Frank H. Morgan.

The Defense Savings Committee has backed all nation-wide War Loan drives, with the citizens always buying their quota of War Bonds and usually investing more than the quota.

Commerce has also gone over the top in all Red Cross drives.

The Conservation Committee, headed by J. O. McKenzie, has backed several scrap drives including rubber, scrap metals, paper, and old clothing. The Commerce Boy Scout groups have acted as collectors in several of these scrap drives.

The East Texas State Teachers College, located here, has helped train several groups of military personnel for the Army. In 1942 a group of about twenty CPT trainees were housed in Mayo Hall and received training at the Commerce air port.

After the CPT students completed their training, a contingent of six hundred WAACs were moved into the East Dormitory for girls. In 1944 the WAACs finished their training and a group of two hundred ASTP students were sent here to be taught by civilian teachers already on the college faculty. These Army boys were housed in Mayo Hall and the West Dormitory for girls.

East Texas coeds have helped entertain soldiers at Camp Maxey and RAF trainees stationed at Terrell. Commerce citizens have been very hospitable to all military personnel who have visited in Commerce. This week several East Texas music students visited Camp Maxey to entertain soldiers in the hospital there.

THE USO

In the fall of 1942 the Salvation Army was assigned the Greenville USO. After first activities in an upstairs building on Lee Street, finally the beautiful club rooms on Wesley and Jordan were secured, where excellent work is being done by Mrs. Mollie Lee Williamson and Miss Margaret Ann Binkley, the executive secretaries.

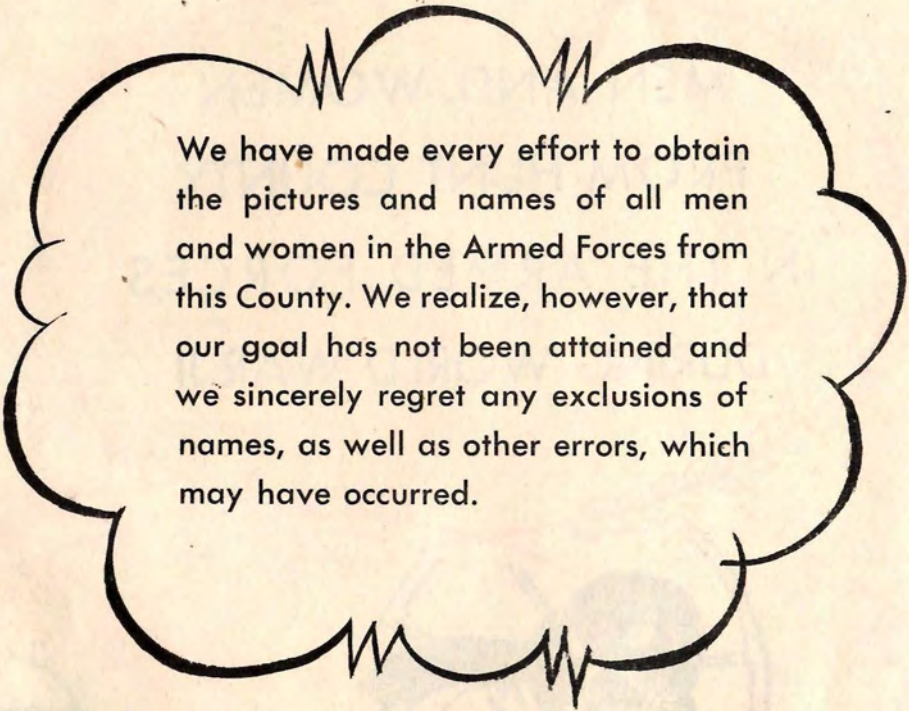

In the summer of 1944 the negro USO extension was set up on Johnson Street, and is doing a good work under the direction of Ola Griffin.

The following constitute the USO Council to supervise the work in these two club buildings: Dr. T. O. Perrin, Chairman; Miss Ollie Coon, Secretary; Howard Sanders, Raymond Gray, Paul Mathews, L. Luton Henson, Archie Skibell, Charley Glassman, Rev. Boyd I. DeVore, L. R. Gambrell, Mrs. Osa Alexander, Mrs. Norman Winerton, Mrs. Frank Cushing, Miss Elenita Patton, Capt. Joseph G. Thompson.
