Colophon

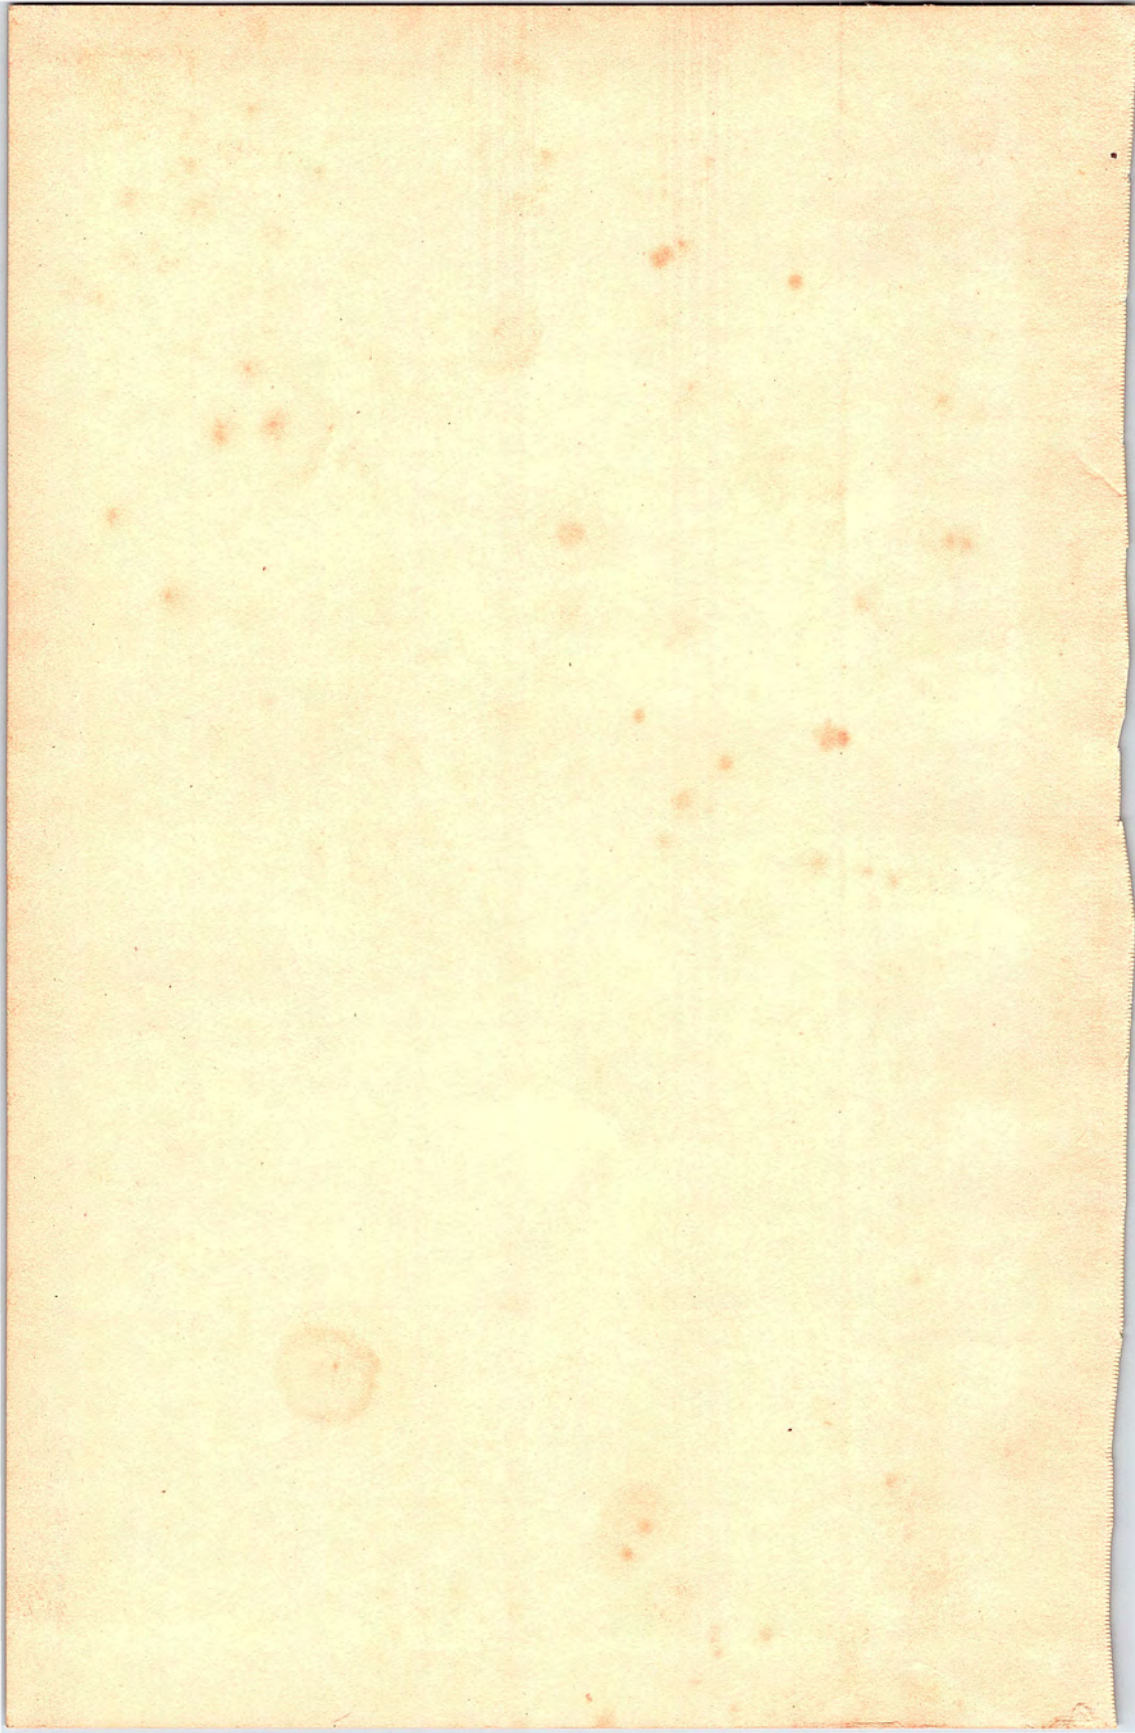

The text of this volume has been set mainly in 10 point Benedictine type. Typesetting and presswork are products of The Williams Printing Company of Richmond, Virginia. Its work upon the book has been done under the supervision of Roy H. Williams, Jr. Four thousand copies have been printed.

The engravings have been made by the Metropolitan Engraving and Electrotype Company of Richmond, Virginia, under the supervision of Fred A. Dabney.

The use of the insignia of wartime services in the jacket design was conceived by the editor and was executed by Charles W. Smith of Charlottesville, Virginia.

The binding of the volume has been done by L. H. Jenkins, Incorporated, of Richmond, Virginia.

ALBEMARLE COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VIRGINIA

Pursuits of War is the largest publication yet undertaken by the Albemarle County Historical Society, a vigorous and independent historical organization which unites through the medium of mutual interest in the history of Albemarle County and the city of Charlottesville more than four hundred members. The Society was organized in 1940. It issues annually the Papers of the Albemarle County Historical Society, of which six volumes appeared prior to the autumn of 1947.

The Society has also published Early Charlottesville: Recollections of James Alexander, 1828-1874, edited by Mary Rawlings, which was brought out in 1942 under the financial sponsorship of The Peoples National Bank of Charlottesville. Again, in connection with the present volume, the bank has guaranteed costs of publication without expectation of profit.

Pursuits of War is the fruit of more than two years of work which has been supervised by a special committee of the Society, headed by Miss Mary Stamps White. Under the direction of the Society's Editor, the talents of eight authors and of various members of the committee have been pooled in the compilation of this unique record. During the period of its preparation the successive presidents of the Society have been Miss Nancy B. Gordon, Mrs. James Keith Symmers, and James F. Minor.

Membership in the Society, which meets quarterly, is open to all who may wish to become associated with it for the enrichment and advancement of historical scholarship relating to its locale. The cost of individual membership is one dollar per year; one can be enrolled as a life member upon payment of twenty-five dollars.

DO YOU REMEMBER . . .

That three winners of the Congressional Medal of Honor were from Albemarle County and Charlottesville?

That one of the nation's outstanding war mothers, with nine sons in the armed forces, was a Negro woman of Albemarle County?

That two Charlottesville manufacturing firms four times each received the Army-Navy "E" award for outstanding excellence in war production?

That the Monticello Guard, in its first battle experience, spearheaded the attack in the landings on Omaha Beach in Normandy?

That approximately 40,000 persons visited the U.S.O. building in Charlottesville during two and a half years of its operation?

That 2,498 Red Cross workers in Charlottesville and Albemarle County made 5,687,430 surgical dressings and that banners displayed in New York City called for volunteers there to surpass Charlottesville's production?

That a Charlottesville manufacturer made plastic noses for Black Widows?

That a Charlottesville soldier was the first man ashore in the American reconquest of the Philippines?

That war bond purchases in Charlottesville and Albemarle County doubled the community's overall quotas, giving it fourth rank in Virginia in regard to sales?

That an Albemarle County girl was declared state 4-H Club canning champion for 1944 when she alone put up 466 quarts of food?

That more than 5,400 citizens of Charlottesville and Albemarle County served in the armed forces of the United States and that 195 gave their lives?
