Courageously ignoring intense 38 mm, automatic, and small arm fire concentrated on them, they delivered such effective fire that the hostile 88 mm gun and two machine guns were silenced and their crews and many supporting riflemen wounded and disorganized. Only when the machine gun's ammunition was exhausted did Private First Class Fischer leave the exposed position and rejoin the convoy. Entered military service from New Jersey.

I -- AWARD OF MERITORIOUS SERVICE UNIT PLAQUE (SERVICE COMPANY, 424TH INFANTRY) - Under the provisions of War Department Circular 345, 25 August 1944, as amended, the Meritorious Service Unit Plaque is awarded to the Service Company, 424th Infantry, United States Army, for superior performance of duty in the accomplishment of exceptionally difficult tasks during the period 10 December 1944 to 15 March 1945.

II -- AWARD OF SILVER STAR (MISSING IN ACTION) -- Under the provisions of AR 600-45, 22 September 1943, as amended, and pursuant to authority contained in Memorandum Number 21, Fifteenth United States Army, 4 March 1945, the Silver Star is awarded to the following enlisted man who is now missing in action:

Private First Class Leonard J. Savitskie, 36 583 519, 820th Tank Destroyer Battalion, United States Army, for gallantry in action on 17 December 1944, in Germany. During a determined enemy assault on their company area, Private First Class Savitskie and a driver, jumped into a parked armored vehicle and moved to a position astride a road. Private First Class Savitskie, manning the vehicle's heavy machine gun, opened fire, forcing the enemy to take cover in a nearby house. To destroy an enemy mortar concealed behind that building, he seized a hand grenade, valiantly charged across an open field, defying the severe small arms fire concentrated on him, and threw his grenade, hitting out the mortar squad. Private First Class Savitskie then ran back to the vehicle and continued delivering deadly blasts from his machine gun into the enemy-held house, courageously retaining his position until severely wounded. Entered military service from Michigan.

III -- AWARD OF SILVER STAR -- Under the provisions of AR 600-45, 22 September 1943, as amended, and pursuant to authority contained in Memorandum Number 21, Fifteenth United States Army, 4 March 1945, the Silver Star is awarded to the following officer and enlisted man:

Captain Lee Herwick, O 440 413, 424th Infantry, United States Army, for gallantry in action on 10 December 1944, in Germany. When devastating fire from the enemy cancelled in a cluster of houses raked his battalion's positions, Captain Herwick led a platoon to dislodge the hostile troops from their stronghold. Unwilling to criticize his men in a costly assault, Captain Herwick advanced alone toward the enemy and demanded their surrender. His platoon was met by a deadly burst of fire. Unwounded, he returned, deployed his platoon to the rear, and again demanded surrender. Confident and mesmerized by his bold and aggressive actions, the entire garrison slipped from their stronghold and surrendered. Their capitulation yielded an entire platoon of prisoners to the American soldiers, held captive by Germans. Entered military service from Louisiana.

Technical Sergeant George B. Champion, 35 579 005, (then Staff Sergeant), 424th Infantry, United States Army, for gallantry in action on 16 December 1944, in Germany. Staff Sergeant Champion led a four man patrol into an area penetrated by hostile troops to reconnoiter the area and establish contact with neighboring company elements. Defying incessant small arms fire, he determined the enemy's location and assisted in the methodical elimination of small groups, re-establishing the lines and cutting off all enemy troops still fighting in the area. Unaided and exposed, Staff Sergeant Champion, valiantly disregarding the severe small arms fire concentrated on him, moved among the remaining enemy, hiding in ditches and foxholes killing four of them and taking forty prisoner. Entered military service from Michigan.

Staff Sergeant Ralph G. Duff, 36 650 671, 424th Infantry, United States Army, for gallantry in action on 25 January 1945, in Belgium. When a platoon sent to clear woods of enemy troops was pinned down by severe machine gun and small arms fire, Staff Sergeant Duff, acting as a scout, courageously preceded a six man patrol approaching the woods from the flank in an attempt to relieve the platoon and outflank the enemy positions. During this maneuver, which completely surprised the enemy, Staff Sergeant Duff was seriously wounded, but valiantly disregarding the excruciating pain, he directed his men by hand signals until they had driven the disorganized enemy from the woods, permitting the halted platoon to continue its advance. Entered military service from Illinois.

Private Donald A. Menzies, 42 098 159, 106th Signal Company, United States Army, for heroism not involving actual conflict with an enemy, on 15 May 1945, in Germany. While walking along the bank of the Lahn river, at Bad Nauheim, Germany, Private Menzies was attracted by frenzied shouts coming from the opposite side of the river. The people pointed to a civilian struggling against the river's current. Ignoring the great personal danger, Private Menzies, fully clad, plunged into the water and worked his way toward the man, submerged and no longer fighting. After several unsuccessful dives, Private Menzies located the man and towed him to shore where artificial respiration was applied. Entered military service from New York.

I -- AWARD OF SILVER STAR (MISSING IN ACTION) -- Under the provisions of AR 600-45, 22 September 1943, as amended, and pursuant to authority contained in Memorandum Number 21, Fifteenth United States Army, 4 March 1945, the Silver Star is awarded to the following officer who is now missing in action:

Captain Genaro H. Mondragon, O 262 199, 592d Field Artillery Battalion, United States Army, for gallantry in action on 16 December 1944, in Germany. When many men of his battery's outpost were wounded during the initial stages of the powerful German Ardennes counter-offensive, and concentrated shellfire prevented aid men from moving forward to treat casualties, Captain Mondragon fearlessly rushed forward, despite withering hostile fire, carried and dragged one injured man forty yards to safety and then made two more hazardous evacuation trips. Reorganizing his battery, he successfully repulsed vicious enemy tank attacks until darkness, when he ordered the battery withdrawn to a more tenable position. During this action, severe artillery fire fell on their route, demolishing several trucks and inflicting many casualties. Refusing to abandon casualties that could not be moved, Captain Mondragon ordered all men and remaining vehicles to proceed and was last seen comforting the wounded. Entered military service from North Carolina.

II -- AWARD OF SOLDIER'S MEDAL -- Under the provisions of AR 600-45, 22 September 1943, as amended and pursuant to authority contained in Memorandum Number 21, Fifteenth United States Army, 4 March 1945, the Soldier's Medal is awarded to the following officers and enlisted men:

First Lieutenant Gerald S. Pratt, Jr., O1 183 597, 590th Field Artillery Battalion, United States Army, for heroism not involving actual conflict with an enemy, on 13 May 1945, in France. While proceeding in a convoy near Hennebont, France, a truck carrying ammunition and explosives struck a mine. The truck burst into flames instantaneously and the ammunition exploded violently. Lieutenant Pratt quickly assumed command of the situation, rushed to the truck, and aided in the removal of the men, burned and wounded by the explosion. Disregarding the everpresent danger from exploding small arms ammunition, Lieutenant Pratt returned to determine if any other personnel were left in the blazing vehicle. Unable to locate anyone else, he returned to the injured and helped carry them to a safe distance from the conflagration. Entered military service from Pennsylvania.

First Lieutenant Gordon H. True, O1 171 803, 590th Field Artillery Battalion, United States Army, for heroism not involving actual conflict with an enemy, on 13 May 1945, in France. While proceeding in a convoy near Hennebont, France, a truck carrying ammunition and explosives struck a mine. The truck burst into flames instantaneously and the ammunition exploded violently. Lieutenant True jumped from his truck, and raced to the burning vehicle. Ignoring the imminent personal danger, he crawled to the truck to remove any men who might have been imprisoned there. Locating a body pinned beneath the truck's wheel, he struggled ineffectually to pull it loose, until the severe heat and intensity of the explosions forced him to discontinue his efforts. Entered military service from Maine.

Staff Sergeant Douglas R. Jardine, 32 417 432, 590th Field Artillery Battalion, United States Army, for heroism not involving actual conflict with an enemy, on 13 May 1945, in France. While proceeding in a convoy near Hennebont, France, a truck carrying ammunition and explosives struck a mine. The truck burst into flames instantaneously and the ammunition exploded violently. Staff Sergeant Jardine jumped from his truck and raced toward a soldier lying near the burning vehicle. With the assistance of three other men, he lifted the injured man, whose clothing was aflame, carried him clear of the blazing vehicle, and ripping off his own jacket, Staff Sergeant Jardine rapidly extinguished the flames. Unable to be of further assistance in the immediate vicinity of the flaming vehicle, he helped evacuate the injured to a safe distance from the conflagration. Entered military service from New York.

Corporal Willard Diehl, 35 003 686, 590th Field Artillery Battalion, United States Army, for heroism not involving actual conflict with an enemy, on 13 May 1945, in France. While proceeding in a convoy near Hennebont, France, a truck carrying ammunition and explosives struck a mine. The truck burst into flames instantaneously and the ammunition exploded violently. Disregarding his own safety, Corporal Diehl rushed to the burning vehicle, aided in removing a burned and wounded soldier, and helped carry him away from the conflagration. While tending the casualty, Corporal Diehl noticed another man limping away from the truck, and despite the intense heat and exploding ammunition, rushed to the injured soldier and assisted him to safety. Entered military service from Ohio.

Technician Fifth Grade Clifford V. Britton, 14 016 533, (then Private), Medical Detachment, 590th Field Artillery Battalion, United States Army, for heroism not involving actual conflict with an enemy, on 13 May 1945, in France. While proceeding in a convoy near Hennebont, France, a truck carrying ammunition and explosives struck a mine. The truck burst into flames instantaneously and the ammunition exploded violently. Disregarding the great personal danger, Technician Fifth Grade Britton rushed to the burning vehicle and assisted in removing and carrying an injured soldier from the conflagration. Technician Fifth Grade Britton then promptly and efficiently administered first aid to all the injured men, greatly alleviating their suffering. Entered military service from Mississippi.

Private Billy B. Humphreys, 44 043 476, 424th Infantry, United States Army, for heroism not involving actual conflict with an enemy, on 12 May 1945, in Germany. While standing in a mass line, Private Humphreys noticed a soldier struggling in the strong undertow of the Rhine river, and unable to reach the shore. With utter disregard for his own safety, and despite being fully clothed, Private Humphreys dashed to the river bank, plunged into the water and fought his way through the strong current to the struggling man. After being pulled under once by the sinking man, Private Humphreys brought him to the surface and towed him to safety. Entered military service from Tennessee.

I -- AWARD, POSTHUMOUS, OF SILVER STAR -- Under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, 22 September 1943, as amended, the Silver Star is posthumously awarded to the following officer and enlisted man:

Private First Class Thomas C. Graham, 32 657 702, 589th Field Artillery Battalion, United States Army, for gallantry in action on 16 December 1944, in Belgium. When the turret gunner of a nearby M-8 armored car was wounded, Private First Class Graham voluntarily raced to the car across ground exposed to concentrated small arms fire from a nearby enemy held house and manned the vehicle's turret machine gun. To obtain a more effective firing position, he ordered the car forward into the bullet raked area near the hostile strongpoint. Despite devastating small arms fire, Private First Class Graham remained upright in the vehicle's open turret pouring a deadly hail of bullets into the enemy's stronghold. Twice his weapon jammed, and each time Private First Class Graham calmly withdrew, repaired the gun and returned to resume fire. By his singular courage and aggressive action, Private First Class Graham killed and wounded twenty of the enemy and completely neutralized their position. Entered military service from New York.

First Lieutenant Raymond S. Kautz, 01 289 439, 424th Infantry, United States Army, for gallantry in action on 13 January 1945, in Belgium. Leading his company in an attack on the stubbornly defended town of Henumont, Belgium, First Lieutenant Kautz deployed two platoons to attack on the flanks and remained with his third platoon to form a base of fire. The attack was temporarily halted by devastating machine gun and small arms fire from well concealed enemy positions in a snow covered field. Murderous enfilading fire threatened to decimate the ranks of the flanking platoons. Observing that a frontal assault would be the only way to accomplish the mission, First Lieutenant Kautz jumped up and, urging his men to follow, and in the face of concentrated small arms fire charged toward the enemy emplacements. Only when he was fatally wounded did he stop; but refusing aid, he motioned and directed his men forward until they had crushed the enemy's resistance and seized their objective. Entered military service from Pennsylvania.

II -- AWARD OF SOLDIER'S MEDAL -- Under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, 22 September 1943, as amended, the Soldier's Medal is awarded to the following enlisted man:

Private First Class Roger W. Bilodeau, 31 291 207, 81st Engineer Combat Battalion, United States Army, for heroism not involving actual conflict with an enemy, on 11 June 1945, in Germany. When a can of gasoline was accidentally set afire in the battalion gas dump at Bad Ems, Germany, Private First Class Bilodeau, without regard for his own safety, unhesitatingly ran into the dump, seized the flaming can and removed it from the storage area. By his rapid thinking, decisive action and defiance of the great personal danger, Private First Class Bilodeau prevented the spread of a dangerous conflagration and destruction of valuable government property. Entered military service from Rhode Island.

AMENDMENT OF GENERAL ORDERS NO. 33 . . . . .	IV

I -- AWARD, POSTHUMOUS, OF SILVER STAR -- Under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, 22 September 1943, as amended, the Silver Star is posthumously awarded to the following officer:

First Lieutenant Eric F. Wood, Jr., O 517 724, 589th Field Artillery Battalion, United States Army, for gallantry in action on 16 December 1944 and 17 December 1944, in Germany. Under the shock of the initial German assault that signalled their Ardennes attack, First Lieutenant Wood's battery was subjected to heavy mortar and counter-battery fire. First Lieutenant Wood kept his guns in ceaseless action successfully accomplishing all missions designated. When his battery was assaulted by three infantry supported enemy tanks, First Lieutenant Wood coolly disregarded the concentrated fire, moved from emplacement to emplacement, and personally directed his guns in destroying one tank and forcing the others to withdraw. The next morning, ordered to displace his battery, First Lieutenant Wood directed the movement through Schonberg, Belgium, which was, at the time, infiltrated by the enemy and under fire from their tanks. First Lieutenant Wood attempted to run the gauntlet through the town with the last gun to leave, but its prime mover was hit by an enemy tank shell, two soldiers were killed and First Lieutenant Wood was missing in action from that time until his body was later found near Myrode, Belgium, surrounded by five enemy dead. Entered military service from Pennsylvania.

AWARD OF SILVER STAR -- Under the provisions of Army Regulations (600-15, 1913), as amended, the Silver Star is awarded to the following officers:

Captain Edward J. Borle, O 555 731, (then First Lieutenant), Corps of Engineers, 124th Infantry, United States Army, for gallantry in action on 27 December 1944, in Belgium. Three platoons of Company ME<sup>1</sup>, 124th Infantry, advancing along a heavily shelled road in an attack on Lanoy, Belgium, were forced to take cover. With complete disregard for the concentrated artillery and mortar fire, Captain Borle drove his jeep down the road to aid in evacuating casualties. Captain Borle rendered first aid, carried a seriously wounded man to the rear, and successfully evacuated him to the rear. The unflinching coolness and courage of Captain Borle and his words of encouragement so inspired the other platoons that they resumed their advance and successfully cleared the road of military service from Illinois.

Second Lieutenant John A. Ormichael, O2 005 506, (then Chief Warrant Officer, Engineer Combat Battalion, United States Army, for gallantry in action on 25 December 1944, in Belgium and Germany. To deliver ammunition to an infantry company preparing an attack on Hladali, Germany, Chief Warrant Officer Ormichael was required to travel to Hessa, Belgium, over a route which was under constant artillery fire. Upon completion of this hazardous mission, Chief Warrant Officer Ormichael volunteered to accompany a reconnaissance patrol to the front. Heavy small arms fire made it necessary to split the patrol into two sections. Commanding one section, he set forth on the left of the main body, leading the way under fire and forcing them into two houses. Establishing a position to pin down the trapped Germans, Chief Warrant Officer Ormichael directed the edge of town where he directed a tank destroyer in the demolition of the main strongpoint, thus nullifying resistance and winning the objective. Award of military service from Iowa.

Second Lieutenant Thomas L. Langford, O25 835, (then Second Lieutenant), United States Army, for gallantry in action on 25 December 1944, in Belgium. Leading a platoon of Company "F", 424th Infantry, in a company attack on Lanoy, Belgium, Second Lieutenant Langford participated in a flanking movement which caused them to concentrate tank and machine gun fire on his position. He bravely advanced and fearless of his own safety, Second Lieutenant Langford directed the platoon in position, directing fire and when an enemy tank was spotted, Second Lieutenant Langford personally directed a tank destroyer against the tank, killing one of its crew. Award of military service from Illinois. Later, when the company was under

I -- AWARD OF MERITORIOUS SERVICE UNIT PLAQUE (MEDICAL DETACHMENT, 424TH INFANTRY) -- Under the provisions of War Department Circular 345, 23 August 1944, as amended, the Meritorious Service Unit Plaque is awarded to the Medical Detachment, 424th Infantry, United States Army, for superior performance of duty in the accomplishment of exceptionally difficult tasks during the period 15 December 1944 to 15 February 1945.

II -- AWARD OF SILVER STAR -- By direction of the President, under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, 22 September 1943, as amended, the Silver Star is awarded to the following officer and enlisted man:

Staff Sergeant Rocco P. DeFelice, 33 590 027, 424th Infantry, United States Army, for gallantry in action on 16 December 1944, in Germany. Remaining at his post after having been painfully wounded during the intense barrage that signalled the enemy's Ardennes attack, Staff Sergeant DeFelice, heroically kept his 57 MM anti-tank gun in action despite a continuing rain of German mortar and artillery fire. Observing three enemy tanks supported by infantry approaching, Staff Sergeant DeFelice coolly withheld his fire until they moved to within one hundred fifty yards of his emplacement. Then, completely surprising the enemy, and with telling accuracy, he knocked out two of the tanks in quick succession. When his gun was demolished by a direct hit, Staff Sergeant DeFelice, forced to withdraw, skillfully led his shock-dazed crew to safety. Entered military service from Delaware.

Voluntarily accompanying a team assigned the mission of reducing an enemy pillbox, Captain Graham deliberately exposed himself to continuous and accurate machine gun fire to treat three seriously wounded mine casualties. When an aid man became entangled in a web of mine trip wires, Captain Graham, heroically ignoring the imminent danger from the mines and from enemy fire calmly freed the man. After the pillbox had been taken, Captain Graham, despite heavily concentrated mortar and artillery fire, aided in evacuation of the wounded. Entered military service from Ohio.

Special Court-Martial
Orders No. 5

17 September 1945

In the case of Private First Class John F. Druschel, 35 211 863, Headquarters Company, Third Battalion, 422d Infantry, whose sentence was promulgated by Special Court-Martial Orders No. 53, Headquarters 422d Infantry, 7 September 1945, the evidence shows that punishment was imposed under article of War 104 for the offense stated in the Specification of Charge I; that the offense occurred while accused was intoxicated, and was minor, and that the punishment imposed constituted a bar to trial under said specification and charge. The evidence is insufficient to support the finding of guilty of the Specification of Charge II. The findings and sentence are vacated as illegal and void. All rights, privileges, and property of which Private First Class Druschel has been deprived by virtue of such sentence will be restored to him.

I -- AWARD OF SOLDIER'S MEDAL -- By direction of the President, under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, 22 September 1943, as amended, the Soldier's Medal is awarded to the following enlisted man:

Private John O. Stair, 33 942 658, 14th Field Artillery Observation Battalion, (then 422d Infantry), United States Army, for heroism not involving actual conflict with an enemy, on 12 August 1945, in Germany. Private Stair, standing on the edge of a water-filled rock quarry, saw a soldier struggling to keep from drowning in the extremely deep water. Ignoring the great personal danger, Private Stair unhesitatingly plunged in, swam to the struggling man, and towed him to safety. Entered military service from Pennsylvania.

II -- AWARD, POSTHUMOUS, OF BRONZE STAR MEDAL -- By direction of the President, under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, 22 September 1943, as amended, the Bronze Star Medal is posthumously awarded to the following officer and enlisted man:

Private Wallace Godwin, 34 829 307, 589th Field Artillery Battalion, United States Army, for heroic achievement in connection with military operations against the enemy on 16 December 1944, in Germany. While under heavy enemy artillery and small arms fire, Private Godwin voluntarily and fearlessly left his safe position to go to the aid of a wounded soldier lying exposed in a field, but was fatally wounded by artillery fire before he could reach him. The exceptional courage and bravery displayed by Private Godwin were inspirational to the men who witnessed his gallant action, and his heroic attempt was in the best traditions of the service. Entered military service from Florida.

Captain Malcolm H. Rockwell, O1 165 554, 589th Field Artillery Battalion, United States Army, for heroic achievement in connection with military operations against the enemy on 16 December 1944, in Germany. Under attack by numerically superior forces, with the imminent possibility of his battery being cut off, Capt Rockwell, although ordered to withdraw, realizing that such action would endanger the rest of the battalion, rallied his men, organized a skirmish line, and fought on, despite the overwhelming odds. When further resistance became impossible, Captain Rockwell supervised the destruction of his howitzers to prevent their use by the enemy. Finally taken captive, Captain Rockwell refused to remain a prisoner, and was killed in an attempt to escape. Entered military service from Wisconsin.

III -- AWARD OF BRONZE STAR MEDAL (OAK LEAF CLUSTER) -- By direction of the President, under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, 22 September 1943, as amended, the First Oak Leaf Cluster to the Bronze Star Medal is awarded to the following officer:

Major Jerome G. Taylor, O 342 608, Reception Station No. 6, Camp Atterbury, Indiana, (then 424th Infantry), United States Army, for meritorious service in connection with military operations against the enemy from 1 January 1945 to 8 May 1945, in Belgium, France and Germany. Entered military service from Tennessee.

IV -- AWARD OF BRONZE STAR MEDAL -- By direction of the President, under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, 22 September 1943, as amended, the Bronze Star Medal is awarded to the following officers and enlisted men:

Staff Sergeant Robert S. Bankhead, 34 382 982, 424th Infantry, United States Army, for meritorious service in connection with military operations against the enemy from 17 December 1944 to 8 May 1945, in Belgium, France and Germany. Entered military service from South Carolina.

First Sergeant George P. Blazin, 39 086 432, (then Private), 589th Field Artillery Battalion, United States Army, for heroic achievement in connection with military operations against the enemy from 19 December 1944 to 23 December 1944, in Belgium. While his battalion was defending the crossroads at Baraque de Fraiture, First Sergeant Blazin tirelessly and without regard for his own personal safety, repeatedly exposed himself to fierce enemy fire to deliver ammunition to the foremost howitzer and machine gun positions, and to assist in firing wherever his assistance was most needed to repulse the persistent enemy attacks. Although painfully wounded by a shell fragment, First Sergeant Blazin refused evacuation and fought on until the position became untenable. Entered military service from California.

First Lieutenant Robert F. Carleton, O1 648 952, 106th Signal Company, United States Army, for meritorious service in connection with military operations against the enemy from 19 November 1944 to 8 May 1945, in England, France, Belgium and Germany. Entered military service from Massachusetts.

Captain Richard J. Comer, OI 285 550, 28th Infantry Division, (then 424th Infantry), United States Army, for heroic achievement in connection with military operations against the enemy on 23 December 1944, in Belgium. When it became apparent that the enemy was attempting to encircle the entire area occupied by a tank battalion to which his company had been attached for security defense, Captain Comer personally led an attack which cleared the enemy from the area, and held until ordered to withdraw later that night. To evacuate his men from their foxholes, Captain Comer, although under constant artillery and small arms fire, fearlessly went from one position to another, remaining until the last man was safely withdrawn. Entered military service from Alabama.

Captain Arthur W. Corcoran, OI 176 293, 591st Field Artillery Battalion, United States Army, for meritorious service in connection with military operations against the enemy from 10 December 1944 to 8 February 1945, in Belgium and Germany. Entered military service from New Jersey.

Sergeant Robert A. Kirkbride, 31 215 792, 106th Quartermaster Company, United States Army, for meritorious service in connection with military operations against the enemy from 8 December 1944 to 8 May 1945, in France, Belgium and Germany. Entered military service from Massachusetts.

Captain James B. McNiroh, O 300 426, 424th Infantry, United States Army, for meritorious service in connection with military operations against the enemy from 16 December 1944 to 28 January 1945, in Belgium and Germany. Entered military service from South Carolina.

Captain Morris R. Piha, OI 577 691, 106th Quartermaster Company, United States Army, for meritorious service in connection with military operations against the enemy from 17 November 1944 to 8 May 1945, in England, France, Belgium and Germany. Entered military service from Georgia.

When a fragment hit the other soldier in the leg making it impossible for him to walk, Private Sabo dragged the wounded man across an open field through the withering enemy fire to safety. Shortly afterward, Private Sabo voluntarily delivered ammunition to machine gunners defending the road block despite the heavy fire concentrated on his vehicle. Entered military service from New Jersey.

When the enemy ambushed an ammunition convoy which he had voluntarily joined, Private Skupaka, demonstrating great courage, quickly moved to an exposed position to man a truck-mounted machine gun, and although under intense small arms fire, fearlessly exacted a heavy toll from the enemy. The unhesitating bravery displayed by Private Skupaka reflects great credit on himself and the military service. Entered military service from Pennsylvania.

When the Germans launched their initial determined Ardennes attack, Captain Bartell, without regard for his own personal safety, rallied his men and succeeded in stopping the enemy's penetration. When his feet became frozen, Captain Bartell refused evacuation, tirelessly reconnoitered for better positions, and continuously went from group to group to bolster the morale of his men. Although realizing the condition of his feet might leave him crippled, Captain Bartell remained with his company until its mission was accomplished and secure positions were established. Entered military service from New York.

Under provisions of paragraphs 3b and 10, AR 600-45, the Silver Star is awarded the following named officers:

Captain MARTIN W KYNETT, O-327341, 132nd Infantry, Home address; 3034 N. Lowell Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, and 1st Lieutenant BENJAMIN C. MCGAHEY, O-379918, 246th Field Artillery Battalion, Home address; 724 Majorca Avenue, Coral Gables, Florida.

For gallantry in action, Guadalcanal, Solomon Islands, on 19 December 1942.

Early in the morning of 19 December 1942, Lt. Col. William C Wright, O-274200, commanding 3d Battalion, 132d Infantry, was mortally wounded while reconnoitering in advance of the line held by his battalion. Enemy fire was such at the time that it was impossible to reach Lieutenant McGahey, who was with Colonel Wright when the latter was wounded, volunteered to guide a patrol to evacuate Colonel Wright. Captain Kynett led a patrol of volunteers, and accompanied by Lieutenant McGahey, recovered Colonel Wright's body together with a wounded enlisted man who was in the same vicinity.

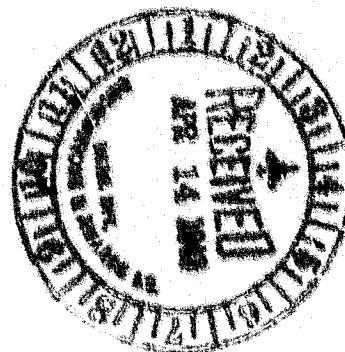

All members of this patrol acted beyond the call of duty and displayed courage and initiative of a high order. The exact location of the enemy was unknown, and there was every reason to believe that the mission could not be accomplished without additional loss of life. Both of these officers showed a high degree of leadership and executed the mission in a manner to inspire confidence in an organization which had been considerably shaken by the loss of its leader.
