GENERAL ORDERS

NO. 1

By direction of the President, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 2, 1926 (Bull. 8, W.D., 1926), a Soldier's Medal is awarded by the Commanding General, 93d Infantry Division, to the following named officer:

STANIS S. MELENDEZ, O-428160, first lieutenant, Medical Corps, United States Army. For heroism displayed at the scene of an accident in the Colorado River, near Earp, California on December 1, 1942, when an assault boat containing ten enlisted men was swept by the swift current of the Colorado River into a footbridge, throwing four of the men into the river. Lieutenant MELENDEZ, upon seeing the accident, proceeded in a power-driven assault boat to a spot in the river where the men were last seen and, fully clothed, with utter disregard for his own personal safety, dived into the water in an effort to save the lives of the four enlisted men. Despite the great risk involved, due to many holes in the river bed, which created strong under-currents and whirlpools, and the heavy sand laden water, Lieutenant MELENDEZ dived again and again in repeated efforts to effect a rescue until he finally became so exhausted that he had to be assisted from the water. Residence at appointment: Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

En route to accomplish said mission, the battalion encountered three (3) enemy pill boxes whose fire stopped its advance. Private First Class FOGGIE was assigned the task of destroying the enemy pill boxes with rocket fire. While hostile snipers fired on and about him, he calmly crawled forward to a firing position in a shallow and exposed foxhole. From that position he delivered accurate and effective fire on his target. Within a few minutes, the pill boxes and enemy therein had been destroyed; and his organization was able to proceed on its mission. AWARDS OF THE BRONZE STAR MEDAL

By direction of the President, under the provisions of Executive Order Number 9419, 4 February 1944 (Sec II, Bull 3, WD, 1944), a Bronze Star Medal is awarded by the Commanding General, 93d Infantry Division, to the following named enlisted men:

MARCELLUS T. COOKE, (32335838), Staff Sergeant, Cavalry, United States Army, for meritorious service in connection with military operations against the enemy at Bougainville, Solomon Islands on 5 July 1944; at which time the platoon of which Staff Sergeant COOKE was the Platoon Sergeant was advancing up an enemy ridge, when brought under intense enemy fire. Wounded in the leg by the first volley, Staff Sergeant COOKE continued to fire his BAR with accurate and effective results, permitting the withdrawal of members of his platoon. His courage and devotion to duty, though wounded, reflects the highest credit on himself and the service. Nearest relative: Mr. Marcellus Cooke, (Father), Pea Pond Road, Wataugh, L.I., New York.

WILLIAM A. DYSON, (37368908), Private First Class, Cavalry, United States Army, for meritorious service in connection with military operations against the enemy at Bougainville on 5 July 1944. While on an approach to an enemy ridge, the platoon of which Private First Class DYSON was a member was brought under intense enemy fire. Though wounded in the head by the first volley, Private First Class DYSON repeatedly exposed himself while firing his BAR, drawing fire to himself, knocking out at least one enemy machine gun; hence, permitting the men in front to withdraw while he covered the withdrawal. But for his action, courage and devotion to duty, the men in front of him would probably have been lost. Nearest relative: Mr. William Dyson, (Father), General Delivery, Athon, Georgia.

Upon reaching the surface, he started towing him towards the boat when given aid by a rope thrown from the boat. Although unsuccessful, Private MURRAY'S heroic efforts to save his comrade's life, at great risk of his own life, reflect great credit upon himself and are in keeping with the highest traditions of the Army. Home Address: Mrs. Eliza Murray, (Mother), 1000 Walnut Street, Vicksburg, Mississippi.

JAMES WILLIAMS, (35363398), Private, Field Artillery, United States Army. For heroism at Treasury Island, Solomon Islands, on 11 October 1944, when a fellow soldier lost his footing in boarding a YP boat and fell into deep water. Private WILLIAMS, with complete disregard for his own safety, dived into the water and swam to his aid. After several attempts, Private WILLIAMS reached the drowning man and started towing him towards the boat when given aid by a rope thrown from the boat.
